Hello Everyone,

By the time you read this message our wonderful Christmas party will be over and we will be preparing for our next big event Fair Day and the Mardi Gras Parade, and our double decker bus.

A big thank you, as always to all the guys who helped to make our Christmas party a great success, especially to the guys in the kitchen headed by Jeff and Ronnie, and not forgetting all the extra work that John O'Dea puts in to making our food tables always special and scrumptious. David with his expert Christmas decorations. What would we do without the efforts of these very dedicated guys.

I am sure everyone enjoyed the wonderful entertainment provided by JBear. He always gives 110% and kept us all in the Christmas spirit.

Our next meeting will be on Saturday 8th January 2011 in our present location. We haven't had any word as to when the big move is happening, but you will all be informed as soon as we are notified.

We are seeking donations of wine for our Fair Day Wine Raffle, so if you can help out with a bottle of wine it would be most appreciated. Please bring them in as soon as possible — thankyou.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a very a safe and prosperous New Year.
Good health and God Bless.

Love from your President, Erroll x x x x x x

FAIR DAY

26 February

T B A

Hi Guys,

Well here I am on a beautiful Sunday Morning sitting in my favourite little park where I live and looking out at the azure sky after having taken a dip in the white foamed blue waters of the bay.

The water is a comfortable temperature for late spring although a bit wet.

All is well at the moment, so why not enjoy the moment I tell myself, 'cause when you think about it, that's all we ever have. The past is gone, the future may never come and it is only in the present moment that no matter how many years, days, hours, minutes and seconds we have had in our lifetime (and my numbers would probably fill up this page), it is only in the present moment that we truly exist!

So take the time to enjoy it to the fullest, the sky, water, birds, flowers, humanoids, animals, insects,...WOW what a creation, and who is the creator?...God only knows.

Well my God is love and I have left instructions to my enduring guardian, (have you appointed one yet? don't wait till it's too late) that when I can no longer receive or give love...pull the plug!

For what would life be like without love? I don't want to know, pull the plug and let me find it elsewhere.

In the meantime I believe that if all peoples on this planet believed in love, regardless of their religion, what a wonderful world we would live in, without hate, prejudice, terrorism, idolatry, intolerance, discrimination etc etc etc.

So take one of your precious moments and know that I am sending my love to you as always.

Hugs and love to you.

Love Steve.

Our 2010 Christmas Party – 11th December 2010

This function would have had to be one of the best, if not the best socials MAG has held. Over 130 people attended. Thank you to those guys and Michelle who dressed in Chrissy attire – it certainly added to a great night. JBear our entertainer sang magnificently, and with his “Celebrity Heads” contest had all in much laughter, especially when he gave the name of Marilyn away – thanks JBear and partner Noel for a great sound and lighting show. John O’Dea provided us with plenty of fine fair for all to tuck into and drink [the ham was delicious] – don’t know what we would do with out John’s work behind the scenes – sincere thanks John. Thank you to the kitchen guys, and all who lent a hand on the night, especially to clean up and re-assemble the rooms for a meeting ACON was holding on the following Monday. Thanks Joe for your expert carpet sweeping – you did a great job despite critics saying you had missed some spots on the carpet. Your response had all helping out laughing. I decorated the rooms on the Friday night previous. It took 2 hours to do so – GOLD for the main room, SILVER and RED in the foyer and a mixed arrangement of decos in the supper hall. Taking it all down took about 30 minutes. The folding of the sequins will be done later. So, thanks everyone who attended and helped. I hope you enjoyed yourselves – I did!

The 2011 Sydney Gay & Lesbian Mardi Gras

Fair Day – Sunday, 20th February 2011

MAG will again be having a Stall for next year’s Fair Day at Victoria Park, Broadway, Sydney. Home made plants and home grown jams will be on sale, not to mention dirty sex for only $1.00; I mean 36 bottles of fine wines we will be raffling for the cost of only ONE DOLLAR a ticket. To ensure the success of the raffle, we seek assistance from members and friends for a donation of a bottle of wine for the raffle. Donations can be made at any meeting. We also seek assistance for manning the Stall and Raffle Table, so if you can help out, please let our President, Erroll know of your availability.

To the generous guys who have already donated a bottle of wine – thank you!!!!.

The Parade – Saturday 5th March 2011

MAG guys will travel by Bus in next year’s Parade, courtesy of the Over 55’s Services of the City of Sydney providing funds for the hire of an open roofed double decker bus, which MAG is most appreciative of. MAG will pay for the decorating costs.

Our Theme – MAG’s Gold, Bold and Beautiful.

Gold will be our colour, which ties in very well with the City of Sydney Over 55’s Services GOLD programme – Growing Older Living Dangerously. The GOLD programme has one of its main aims to provide a positive image of older people in their communities and they are delighted to have the opportunity to assist our members to celebrate and participate in this high profile event. Participants may, if they wish, wear or wave gold garland scarves. These will be great in Taylor Square where it will be brighter than daylight for the TV cameras.

Happy New Year I hope that this year is good to all our members and readers, and may each of us have good health and much happiness.

The Navy has found they have too many Officers and have decided to offer an early retirement bonus. They promise any officer who volunteers for retirement a bonus of $1,000 for every inch measured in a straight line between any 2 points on his body. The Officers got to choose what those 2 points would be.

The first Officer who accepted asked he be measured from the top of his head to the tip of his toes. He was measured at 6ft and walked out with a bonus of $72,000.

The second Officer who accepted, was a little smarter and asked to be measured from the tip of his outstretched hands to his toes. He walked out with $96,000.

The 3rd Officer was a non-commissioned officer, a grizzly Old Chief who, when asked where he would like to be measured replied, "From the tip of my weenie to my testicles." It was suggested by the Pension Man that he might want to reconsider, explaining about the nice big cheques the two previous Officers had received. But the old Chief insisted and they decided to go along with him providing the measurement was taken by the Navy's Medical Officer. The Medical Officer arrived and instructed the Chief to 'Drop em,' which he did. The Medical Officer placed the tap of the tip of the Chief's weenie and began to work back. "Dear Lord!", he suddenly exclaimed, "where are your testicles?"

The Old Chief calmly replied, "Vietnam."

IAN BAYLY: SEE WHAT I SEE IN THIS GUY.

The person I know as Ian Bayly.
Is a kind and sincere guy.
Get to know him and find out why.
These are his, I feel true traits.

For this reason he's a special human being.

In a friendship of a couple of good mates.
Ian is a person with deep feelings.
These feelings may not be.
Realized by a lot of people.

Who don't know or understand him.

Maybe one day.
They might like to take the time.
To him individually and humanly deal.
There is a time for all of us.
To look away from ourselves.

To another person.
Make a little human fuss.

To show you really care.
Maybe let yourself dare,
Add a little human wealth.

For another's personal happiness.

And ever lasting good health.

Ian Bayly, I feel gives all that's his best.

But doesn't always receive the same.

From the majority of the human rest.
He may be in stature small, but ever so tall.
In character.

Could be ever so kind and sincere to you.

If you could take the time.

To see, get to know him for yourself,
You might then witness this part of him too.

The shadow of his warm smile.

Is there all the while.

This is his unnoticed by many, style.

The person I know as Ian Bayly

Is a good guy through and through.

He's the guy I could recommend to you.

Just give him a personal try.
